5. Malus / Clawback Arrangement:

The Company believes in sustained business performance in tandem with prudent risk taking. The Company, therefore, has devised appropriate deterrents in order to institutionalize the aforementioned commitment.

Malus Arrangement: The provision of a Malus arrangement would entail cancellation of payout for the deferred portion of reward (Variable Pay or Share Linked Instrument). A malus arrangement permits the Company to prevent vesting of all or part of the amount of a deferred remuneration. Malus arrangement does not reverse vesting after it has already occurred.”

Clawback Arrangement: The provision of Clawback arrangement would entail return of payout of reward Variable Pay or Share Linked Instrument made in the previous years attributable to a given reference year wherein the incident has occurred. The return would be in terms of net amount. A clawback is an arrangement between the employee and the Company in which the employee agrees to return previously paid or vested remuneration to the bank under certain circumstances.”

At the discretion of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee ('NRC'), malus and clawback clause will be actioned when the employee demonstrates behaviour involving fraudulent behaviour, moral turpitude, lack of integrity, flagrant breach of company policies and statutory norms resulting in financial or non-financial losses. Manifestation of behaviour listed above is presumed to have a malafide intent. The provisions of malus and clawback clause will be applicable to MD & CEO, Senior Management Personnel of the Company under Companies Act, 2013 & SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and other Key Personnel as per SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996.

Illustrative list of conditions / events is enumerated below. The occurrence of any/some/all of the following conditions/events shall trigger a review by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee for the application of the Malus or the Clawback arrangement:

- a) Substantial Financial Deterioration in profitability or risk parameters
- b) Reckless, negligent or willful actions or exhibited inappropriate values and behavior
- c) Fraud that requires a financial restatement
- d) Reputational harm
- e) Exposing the Company to substantial risk
- f) Such other conditions or events, of similar nature as above, as determined by NRC for triggering review by NRC for the purpose of application of the Malus or the Clawback arrangement

In determining the causes for deterioration in financial performance under (a), the Nomination and Remuneration Committee may take into consideration and have due regard to the fact whether the deterioration was for factors within control or whether it was on account of conditions like global market headwinds, industry performance, changes in legal/regulatory regime, force majeure events like occurrence of natural disasters, pandemic, other socio-economic conditions etc.

While undertaking the review for the concerned person for the application of the Malus or the Clawback arrangement based on any trigger events, when determining accountability of the concerned person, the NRC shall be guided by the principles of proportionality, culpability or proximity or nexus to the event or misconduct. Prior to taking action the NRC shall ensure due regard to the Principles of Natural Justice.

Bonafide error/s of judgment where there is no misconduct, wilful or intentional breach by act/ omission or gross negligence or lack of integrity, may not be treated as breaches under this Policy.

The NRC may decide to apply malus on part, or all of the unvested deferred variable pay and Share Linked Instrument. The time horizon for the application of malus/clawback clause shall be three years from the date of reward.

The NRC shall review the act of misconduct/incident to ascertain the degree of accountability attributable to MD & CEO, Senior Management Personnel of the Company under Companies Act, 2013 & SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and other Key Personnel as per SEBI (Mutual Funds) Regulations, 1996, prior to applying the Malus or Clawback Clause.

The criteria for Malus /Clawback will be reviewed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee annually.

6. COMMITTEE MEMBERS' INTERESTS:

A member of the Committee is not entitled to be present when his or her own remuneration is discussed at a meeting or when his or her performance is being evaluated.

7. REVIEW AND AMENDMENT:

The Committee or the Board may review the Policy annually. The Committee may issue the guidelines, procedures, formats, reporting mechanism and manual in supplement and better implementation to this Policy, if it thinks necessary. This Policy may be amended or substituted by the Committee or by the Board as and when required.

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail upon the provisions hereunder and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.

This Policy has been formally adopted and approved by Board of Directors of the Company in their meeting held on January 15, 2015, in accordance with Section 178 of the Act and rules made thereunder and was further amended on October 25, 2021 and April 17, 2025. Further, this Policy is last updated on April 16, 2026.
